Capitol Hill Workshop: 2008 Election to be Cosponsored by TheCapitol.Net and Congressional Quarterly

ALEXANDRIA, VA – October 7, 2008 – After this year's historic election, TheCapitol.Net will hold its Capitol Hill Workshop: 2008 Election program from Wednesday, November 12, 2008 to Friday, November 14, 2008, at the Goethe-Institut in Washington, DC. Each day's program will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end at 4:00 p.m.

The Capitol Hill Workshop: 2008 Election will provide attendees with the foundation for policy, politics, and process in today's U.S. Congress with an emphasis on the outcomes of the 2008 election. Congressional experts will discuss congressional operations and the legislative process, politics and leadership in the new Congress, and what this election means for the 111th Congress and Congressional budgeting.

The Capitol Hill Workshop: 2008 Election lays the foundation for Washington professionals who want to learn and be more effective on Capitol Hill in the upcoming 111th Congress.

This workshop includes three breakfasts, three networking lunches, and copies of the Congressional Deskbook and the Congressional Directory, both published by TheCapitol.Net.

To learn more about the Capitol Hill Workshop: 2008 Election go to www.ElectionCapitolHillWorkshop.com or contact TheCapitol.Net directly at 703-739-3790 for more details. Space for this conference is limited.
