Keith Hancock Completed Congressional Operations Certificate from TheCapitol.Net

ALEXANDRIA, VA – (June 27, 2013) – Keith Hancock completed his certificate in Congressional Operations from TheCapitol.Net. The Certificate in Congressional Operations is awarded to participants in the program who have completed more than 75 hours of congressional related training.

Keith Hancock is a Policy Analyst with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Hancock said, “Completing the certificate program enhanced my knowledge of Congress and provided me with greater confidence to deal with legislative issues within my agency.”

As a member of the Legislative Staff of Compensation Service, Keith Hancock develops legislative proposals, tracks and analyzes pending legislation, provides technical advice on benefits issues, and formulates policy for 56 regional offices across the nation. Keith Hancock began his career as an adjudicator in Portland, OR, in 1994. He has also served as a manager at the VA’s Regional Office in Phoenix, AZ. Keith Hancock served as a Pararescueman in the U.S. Air Force from 1985 to 1993. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from Portland State University. Keith Hancock is married and has three sons, and he enjoys cycling, hiking, and the outdoors.

TheCapitol.Net’s Congressional Operations certificate gives professionals the background they need to effectively participate in the legislative arena. The courses help participants understand the legislative process, prepare congressional testimony, draft federal legislation, research legislative histories, monitor legislation, communicate with Congress, and work with federal regulatory agencies.
