About TheCapitol.Net

We help you understand Washington and Congress.™

For more than 40 years, TheCapitol.Net and its predecessor, Congressional Quarterly Executive Conferences, have been training professionals from government, military, business, and NGOs on the dynamics and operations of the legislative and executive branches and how to work with them.

Our training and publications include congressional operations, legislative and budget process, communication and advocacy, media and public relations, research, testifying before Congress, legislative drafting, critical thinking and writing, and more.

TheCapitol.Net encompasses a dynamic team of more than 150 faculty members and authors, all of whom are independent subject matter experts and veterans in their fields. Faculty and authors include senior government executives, former members of Congress, Hill and agency staff, editors and journalists, lobbyists, lawyers, nonprofit executives, and scholars.

We have worked with hundreds of clients across the country to develop and produce a wide variety of custom training programs, on-site and online. All courses, seminars, and workshops can be tailored to align with your organization's educational objectives and presented online or on-site at your location.

TheCapitol.Net is on the GSA Schedule for custom training:
GSA Contract GS02F0192X.

TheCapitol.Net has more than 2,500 clients representing congressional offices, federal and state agencies, military branches, corporations, associations, news media, and NGOs nationwide.

Women in Congress, 1917-2022: Service Dates and Committee Assignments by Member, and Lists by State and Congress

In total 400 women have been elected or appointed to Congress, 260 Democrats and 140 Republicans. These figures include six nonvoting Delegates, one each from Guam, Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and American Samoa, and two from the U.S. Virgin Islands, as well as one Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico. Of these 400 women, there have been

- 342 (224 Democrats, 118 Republicans) women elected only to the House of Representatives;
- 41 (25 Democrats, 16 Republicans) women elected or appointed only to the Senate; and
- 17 (11 Democrats, 6 Republicans) women who have served in both chambers.

A record 148 women were initially sworn in for the 117th Congress. Since then, two House Members have resigned, one House Member has died, eight new House Members have been sworn in, one Senator resigned, and one Senator's appointed term expired.

Of 151 women currently in Congress, there are

- 24 in the Senate (16 Democrats and 8 Republicans);
- 123 Representatives in the House (91 Democrats and 32 Republicans); and
- 4 in the House (2 Democrats and 2 Republicans) who serve as Delegates or Resident Commissioner, representing the District of Columbia, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico.

This report includes brief biographical information, committee assignments, dates of service, district information, and listings by Congress and state, and (for Representatives) congressional districts of the 400 women who have been elected or appointed to Congress. It will be updated when there are relevant changes in the makeup of Congress.

For additional information, including a discussion of the impact of women in Congress as well as historical information, including the number and percentage of women in Congress over time, data on entry to Congress, comparisons to international and state legislatures, tenure, firsts for women in Congress, women in leadership, and African American, Asian Pacific American, and Hispanic women in Congress, see CRS Report R43244, Women in Congress: Statistics and Brief Overview, by Jennifer E. ## Introduction

On November 9, 1916, Jeannette Rankin (R-MT) was elected to the House of Representatives as Montana's Representative-at-Large to the 65th Congress (March 4, 1917-March 4, 1919). This election win gave Representative Rankin the distinction of being the first woman elected to serve in Congress.<sup>1</sup> The first woman to serve in the Senate was Rebecca Latimer Felton (D-GA). She was appointed in 1922 and served for one day.

Four hundred women have been elected or appointed to Congress.<sup>2</sup> These figures include six nonvoting Delegates, one each from Guam, Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and American Samoa, and two from the U.S. Virgin Islands, as well as one Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico. Of these 400 women, there have been<sup>3</sup>

- 260 Democrats and 140 Republicans;
- 342 (224 Democrats, 118 Republicans) women elected only in the House of Representatives, including 7 (4 Democrats, 3 Republicans) women who have served as Delegates or Resident Commissioners in the House;<sup>4</sup>
- 41 (25 Democrats, 16 Republicans) women elected or appointed only in the Senate; and
- 17 (11 Democrats, 6 Republicans) women elected or appointed in both chambers.

A record 148 women were initially sworn in for the 117th Congress. Three have since resigned, eight new arrivals have been sworn in, one Representative has died, and one Senator's appointed term expired.<sup>5</sup> This is higher than the previous record from the 116th Congress (131 women initially sworn in, 1 woman in the House subsequently resigned, 2 women were appointed to the Senate, and 1 of those Senate appointments expired before the end of the Congress). Of the 151 women currently in Congress, there are

- 24 in the Senate (16 Democrats and 8 Republicans);
- 127 in the House (93 Democrats and 34 Republicans); including

Throughout this report, House and Senate totals each include one woman elected but not sworn in or seated due to the House or Senate being out of session. Both women are included in various official congressional publications, including, for example, the Biographical Directory of the United States Congress (<http://bioguide.congress.gov>), "Women in Congress" (<http://history.house.gov/Exhibition-and-Publications/WIC/Women-in-Congress>) and "Senators of the United States 1789-present: a chronological list of senators since the First Congress in 1789," maintained by the Senate Historical Office (<http://www.senate.gov/artandhistory/history/resources/pdf/chronlist.pdf>).

<sup>3</sup> For additional information on the women who have served in Congress, please refer to "Women in Congress," <http://history.house.gov/Exhibition-and-Publications/WIC/Women-in-Congress/>. This website is maintained by the U.S. House of Representatives' Office of the Historian and Office of Art and Archives and is frequently updated.

<sup>4</sup> The total number of female Members of the House includes one Delegate to the House of Representatives from Hawaii prior to statehood, one from the District of Columbia, one from Guam, two from the U.S. Virgin Islands, one from American Samoa, and one Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico.

One woman was sworn into the House in February 2021 (after a delay in the certification of her election), another in April 2021, another in June 2021, another in November 2021, another in January 2022, two more in June 2022, and another in September 2022. The term of one appointed female Senator expired in January 2021, and another female Senator resigned in January 2021 to become Vice President of the United States. Two female House Members resigned in March 2021 to become Cabinet Secretaries, and one died in August 2022.

- 4 women in the House who serve as Delegates or Resident Commissioner (2 Democrats and 2 Republicans), representing the District of Columbia, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico.

The total also includes

- 28 African American women, 11 Asian Pacific American women, 17 Hispanic women, and 3 Native American women; and
- 7 women who chair House standing committees, 4 women who chair Senate standing committees, and 1 woman who chairs a House select committee. Two of these committee chairs, one in each chamber, also chair a Joint Committee related to their service as chair of a House or Senate committee.

Other notable facts about women in the 117th Congress include the following:<sup>6</sup>

- Not including Delegates and the Resident Commissioner, women currently hold 123 (28.3%) seats in the House of Representatives and 24 (24%) seats in the Senate, totaling 147 (27.5%) of the 535 voting seats in the 117th Congress.
- Including Delegates and the Resident Commissioner, women currently hold 127 seats in the House of Representatives, increasing the total to 151 seats (27.9%) held by women in the entire Congress.

This report includes brief biographical information, committee assignments, dates of service, listings by Congress and state, and (for Representatives) congressional districts of the 400 women who have been elected or appointed to Congress. It will be updated when there are relevant changes in the makeup of Congress.

For additional information, including a discussion of the impact of women in Congress as well as historical information, including the number and percentage of women in Congress over time, data on entry to Congress, comparisons to international and state legislatures, tenure, firsts for women in Congress, women in leadership, and African American, Asian Pacific American, Hispanic, and Native American women in Congress, see CRS Report R43244, Women in Congress: Statistics and Brief Overview, by Jennifer E. Manning and Ida A. Brudnick.

Tables and Data

The lists and tables that follow provide information on women Members of Congress, including the dates they were first elected or appointed, Congresses in which they served, committees on which they served, and, where relevant, committees they chaired or served on as ranking member.

Table 1 lists all the women who have served in each Congress, by Congress. Table 2 lists the women Members of Congress, by state. Table 3 provides the total number of women in each Congress.

Most of the data presented are from the

- Biographical Directory of the United States Congress, 1774-present, available at <http://bioguide.congress.gov>;
- various editions of the Congressional Directory;
- Congressional Quarterly and Leadership Directories Inc. publications; and <sup>6</sup> Percentages in this report are calculated using total potential membership and do not reflect vacancies.

- Women in Congress website, at <http://womenincongress.house.gov>, maintained by the House of Representatives' Office of the Historian and the Office of Art and Archives, Office of the Clerk.

The 117th Congress committee assignments sources are the

- House, Official Alphabetical List of the Members with Committee Assignments in the 117th Congress, available from the Clerk of the House's website at https://clerk.house.gov/committee\_info/oal.pdf; and
- Senate, Committee Assignments of the 117th Congress, available at the Senate website at http://www.senate.gov/general/committee\_assignments/assignments.htm.

The names and jurisdiction of House and Senate committees have changed many times over the years. In the interest of brevity, this report does not identify all historical name changes. The committee names listed are for the most part those in effect at the time a Member served on the panel.

Source: Biographical Directory of the United States Congress, 1774-Present, <http://bioguide.congress.gov>.

Notes: Names of Democratic Representatives and Senators in Italics; Republicans in Roman.

Prior to the adoption of the Twentieth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, effective Oct. 15, 1933, the terms of Representatives and Senators began on March 4, in conformance with a resolution of the Continental Congress implementing the Constitution (adopted Sept. 13, 1788). The Twentieth Amendment provides inter alia that the terms of Representatives and Senators shall commence at noon on Jan. 3, in the year following their election. The first Congress affected by the Twentieth Amendment was the 74th (1935-1937). Since 1934, the first session of a Congress convenes on Jan. 3 of odd-numbered years and adjourns on Jan. 3 the following odd-numbered year. For ease of use, this table lists the closing date of each Congress as an even-numbered year. For more information, see <http://www.senate.gov/reference/Sessions/sessionDates.htm>.

- Member did not serve the entire Congress. See biographical information in the Alphabetical Listing section for additional information.
- Moved from House to the Senate during this Congress. See biographical information in the Alphabetical Listing section for additional information.
- Gladys Spellman was elected also to the 97th Congress, but was unable to be sworn in because of a disability and her seat was declared vacant on Feb. 24, 1981.
- Eva Bowring was appointed to serve until a successor was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dwight Griswold. Hazel Abel was elected to fill that vacancy.
- Was elected but not sworn in since chamber was out of session. See biographical information in the Alphabetical Listing section for additional information.
- Appointed to fill a vacancy at the end of the 67th Congress, and served for one day.

Table 2. Women in Congress, 65th-117th Congresses, by State or Territory

Representatives, unless denoted as Senators (S), Delegates (D), Resident Commissioner (RC), or as having served in both chambers (B). Names of Democratic Representatives and Senators in Italics; Republicans in Roman.

Source: CRS summary, based on <http://history.house.gov/Exhibition-and-Publications/WIC/Women-in-Congress/>.

Notes: The column headings include the following abbreviations: Representatives (Reps.), Delegates (Del.), Resident Commissioners (RC), and Senators (Sens.).

Three columns include numbers for the House: (1) the number of women Representatives, (2) the number of women nonvoting Members (including Delegates and Resident Commissioners), and (3) the total number of women in the House.

Totals are also provided for (1) the number of women in the House and Senate not including nonvoting Members and (2) the number of women in the House and Senate including nonvoting Members.

For simplification, Congresses are listed in two-year increments. Pursuant to the 20th Amendment to the Constitution, which was ratified January 23, 1933, “the terms of Senators and Representatives [shall end] at noon on the 3rd day of Jan.” For specific dates, see “Dates of Sessions of the Congress, present-1789,” at <http://www.senate.gov/reference/Sessions/sessionDates.htm>.

Learn how Capitol Hill really works

All of our programs and any combination of their topics can be tailored for custom training for your organization.

For more than 40 years, TheCapitol.Net and its predecessor, Congressional Quarterly Executive Conferences, have been teaching professionals from government, military, business, and NGOs about the dynamics and operations of the legislative and executive branches and how to work with them.

Our training, on-site and online, and publications include congressional operations, legislative and budget process, communication and advocacy, media and public relations, research, testifying before Congress, legislative drafting, critical thinking and writing, and more.

- Diverse Client Base—We have tailored hundreds of custom on-site and online training programs for Congress, numerous agencies in all federal departments, the military, law firms, lobbying firms, unions, think tanks and NGOs, foreign delegations, associations and corporations, delivering exceptional insight into how Washington works.™
- Experienced Program Design and Delivery—We have designed and delivered hundreds of custom programs covering congressional/legislative operations, budget process, media training, writing skills, legislative drafting, advocacy, research, testifying before Congress, grassroots, and more.
- Professional Materials—We provide training materials and publications that show how Washington works. Our publications are designed both as course materials and as invaluable reference tools.
- Large Team of Experienced Faculty—More than 150 faculty members provide independent subject matter expertise. Each program is designed using the best faculty member for each session.
- Non-Partisan—TheCapitol.Net is non-partisan.
- GSA Schedule—TheCapitol.Net is on the GSA Schedule for custom training: GSA Contract GS02F0192X.

Please see our Capability Statement on our web site at TCNCS.com.

Custom training programs are designed to meet your educational and training goals, each led by independent subject-matter experts best qualified to help you reach your educational objectives and align with your audience.

As part of your custom program, we can also provide online venue, classroom space, breaks and meals, receptions, tours, and online registration and individual attendee billing services.
